Prayer for Our Country USA: Almighty God, bless our nation and make it true to the ideas of freedom and justice and brotherhood for all who make it great. Guard us from war, from fire and wind, from compromise, fear, confusion. Be close to our president and our statesmen; give them vision and courage, as they ponder decisions affecting peace and the future of the world. Make me more deeply aware of my heritage; realizing not only my rights but also my duties and responsibilities as a citizen. Make this great land and all its people know clearly Your will, that they may fulfill the destiny ordained for us in the salvation of the nations, and the restoring of all things in Christ our Lord and God and Savior Jesus Christ.

2021 & Past Church Dues (Blue Book) (Kollekta)

During Lent & every Saturday & Sunday dues current & past will be collected in the church hall after 8:30 AM & 10AM Sunday Liturgies.

Please bring your dues book to the church hall dues will not be collected in the rectory Back on January 25, 2005 the Parish Council voted to increase the yearly dues to $75.00 per member. This is the first increase since 1998. The number of upcoming projects that are needed to keep the church building in good repairs, such as painting, doors, walls, fixing the roof, warranted this increase.

Do not place dues in your weekly envelope offering !
Please remember - this is not our church but YOUR church!
Please fulfill your responsibility to your Church!!

Friendly Reminder - 2021 & Past Church Dues are due during lent to support your church to pay our obligations to keep the church running such as salaries; electricity; oil ; gas; water ; and continual maintenance; repair of the church, rectory and cemetery; insurance ; chancery fees; and telephone just to name a few.

2021 STAMFORD CHARITIES DIOCESE APPEAL

The month of June 2021 continues the Stamford Diocese Charities Appeal for 2021. This fund provides support for many programs in the Diocese as indicated in the Sower.

Our offering reminds us that we are members of a greater body of the Church that operates beyond the barriers of our local parish and that each one of us has a role to play in the Church's mission of evangelization and sanctification.

Please note: that at this time our seminary in Stamford is growing and needs your support.

You have received by mail your request for support.
Please help this fund as you have in the past.

Please do not send your donation to Stamford!!! Do not use Paypal !!!

Donations $4,985 or 71.2% to go $2,015 This week $325.

The 2021 Stamford Diocesan Charities Appeal form has been sent. Please make checks payable to:
"The Byzantine Rite Diocese of Stamford" and send or bring your donation to the church.
 Cash is acceptable form for payment.

Do not use Paypal for your donation !

Since every parish in the diocese has been assessed a target for this campaign, please do not sent your gift directly to Stamford. Our parish needs to be properly credited to meet its goal of seven thousand dollars. We did not meet our goal in 2020. While many of our regular contributors have fallen asleep in the Lord, it is even more essential that every parishioner consider such diocesan programs as vocations, religious education, evangelization, and stewardship worthy of personal charity.

A LETTER FROM THE UKRAINIAN CATHOLIC HIERARCHY OF THE USA TO OUR CLERGY, RELIGIOUS, SEMINARIANS AND BELOVED FAITHFUL

The world has lived through an extraordinarily painful and difficult eighteen months. There is no one living who has not been adversely affected in some way by the illness and death wrought by the COVID pandemic and the economic collapse and psychological turmoil it has left in its wake.

But, as bad as the pandemic is, it proved to be a learning experience for our Church in the United States. We were compelled to develop innovative methods of witnessing to Christ in the world. We quickly adapted to the new and unprecedented new reality and soon almost every parish had the ability of live-streaming liturgical services and conducting meetings and catechetical sessions remotely.

These modern technologies were life-savers, but they could never replace being with each other, in person, in community. Truly, how much have we missed praying together and sharing fellowship as a parish community in our beloved parish churches! How much have our hearts yearned for the consolation of the Holy Mysteries and especially the presence of our Eucharistic Lord in our souls!

Now, however, through the grace of God, and the efforts of zealous doctors and researchers, it appears the pandemic is waning and the time of healing, rebuilding and renewal has begun. Now, finally, the day has come for us to return to church, to the House of the Lord, that tiny slice of heaven on earth.

In most of the jurisdictions in which our churches are located in the United States, the COVID restrictions regarding public gatherings, social distancing and mask wearing have been eased or removed altogether. We, your bishops, therefore, invite all of you, our faithful, to see this as a sign to return to your parish churches and, along with your pastors, renew the liturgical, sacramental and community life that has been lacking for over a year and is the center of our lives. We urge everyone to return, but, at the same time, to be prudent and continue to employ the normal means of keeping your churches sanitized and safe.

In particular, we are grateful to those of you who, despite your own hardships, continued to offer the same and even more financial support to your individual parishes during this time, especially since the usual means of parish fund-raising were not possible. By this you have demonstrated how much you love your parish church and your Faith.

As regards the distribution of Holy Communion during the celebration of the Divine Liturgy, we advise the pastors, for the time being, to continue the practice of distribution that each of you has established during the time of the pandemic. At some point in the near future we will revisit the issue and offer a concise directive.

May the words of joy and trust in the Lord expressed by the psalmist be a reflection of our own joy as we return to our beloved sanctuaries: "Only goodness and mercy will pursue me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever." (Ps. 23:6)

May the blessings of God be with you,

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Epistle - ROMANS 5: 1 - 10 ~ Gospel - MATTHEW 6: 22 - 33

"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you" (Mt.6:33).

The Gospel lesson of the 3rd Sunday after Pentecost is a part of the famous Sermon on the Mount which our Lord Jesus Christ preached at the beginning of His ministry. Today's fragment is dealing with the right preferences, right priorities we should have.

Our Lord knew our attachment to the material goods, so He teaches to care more about the true good which is the Kingdom of God. Everything necessary for our earthly existence will be added: food, drink, clothing. But not just added; there is one condition: He says: "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God."(Mt. 6, 33)

What does "seek" mean? It means that the Lord requires from us actions, an effort of our will. Remember the Gospel readings for the last two weeks and also what was said in today's Gospel. These are like steps by which all the saints ascended to the heavenly dwellings, and by which we too must all ascend. Indeed, there is no other way. The way to the Lord is the same for everyone. And it is this: Confess Christ before people, love Him more than everyone and everything else, and take up our cross and follow Him, in the same way the Apostles followed Him, leaving everything behind: their families, nets and boats. And not care about what we eat or drink or about what to wear, because our Heavenly Father knows that we need all these things. The Gospel gives us wonderful examples:

“Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap ... yet your Heavenly Father feeds them.... And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: and yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these” (Mt. 6:26, 28-29).

This is what it means to seek the Kingdom of God. But what is the center of such seeking? What is required of us for this? What is the beginning? Here it is: “The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be clean or pure, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness” (Mt. 6:22-23).

Which eye is meant here? This eye is our conscience, and the body is our entire being. This means that if our conscience is clean, then our entire being will be full of light. But for our conscience to be clean, an effort on our part is needed. We must keep vigilant watch over our thoughts and every movement of our heart. It is for this purpose that we are given this inner eye.

May the Lord help us to strain all our forces to keep it clean. And then all the commandments of God will become joyous and possible for us, because we will be full of light.

“O Christ, the true Light, Who enlightens every man who comes into the world, may the light of Thy Countenance be signed upon us, and may we behold in it the unapproachable Light!” (Prayer after the First Hour, at the end of the evening vesper service). (Excerpt from

<https://www.pravmir.com/>)

Living the Year of St. Joseph: Pope Francis proclaimed 2021 the Year of St. Joseph and released his Apostolic letter “With a Father’s Heart” (Patris Corde). This is how Joseph loved Jesus, whom all four Gospels refer to as “the son of Joseph. The greatness of Saint Joseph is that he was the spouse of Mary and the father of Jesus. In this way, he placed himself, in the words of St. John Chrysostom, “at service of the entire plan of salvation”. (Excerpt from “With a Father’s Heart”)

This month we celebrate Father’s Day (Sunday June 20). Let us turn our prayers and devotion to St. Joseph, entrust your daily work to him, an opportunity “to encourage us to implore his intercession and to imitate his virtues and his zeal”. Remember our Fathers, living and deceased and also our Spiritual Fathers, our Clergy.

TROPARION TO ST. JOSEPH Tone 8: O righteous Joseph! Chosen protector of the Most-Holy Virgin, Mary, * and instructor and nurturer of the God-Man: * glorifying your service to the ineffable mystery of the Incarnation of God the Word, * we dedicate hymns of praise to you. * Standing now before the throne of Christ our God, * and having great boldness before Him, * pray for us that cry out to you: **

Rejoice! O righteous Joseph, ready helper and intercessor for our souls!

LET US CONTINUE TO PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

Our awareness and prayer for vocations should continue even more fervently and with the commitment to keep our prayers focused on the Vocation Crisis. We ask you to continue to fully commit to deep, sincere prayer for vocations to the priesthood, the diaconate, the monastic and religious life. As a community we should strive that our prayers be raised in unity ~ unity in mind, heart and soul, praying that the will of God will send workers into His vineyard.

In the United States, Flag Day is celebrated on June 14. It commemorates the adoption of the flag of the United States on June 14, 1777, by resolution of the Second Continental Congress.^[1] The Flag Resolution, passed on June 14, 1777, stated: "Resolved, That the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."^{[2][3]}

The United States Army also celebrates the U.S. Army birthday on this date; Congress adopted "the American continental army" after reaching a consensus position in the Committee of the Whole on June 14, 1775.^{[4][5]}

In 1916, President Woodrow Wilson issued a proclamation that officially established June 14 as Flag Day; on August 3, 1949, National Flag Day was established by an Act of Congress. Flag Day is not an official federal holiday. Title 36 of the United States Code, Subtitle I, Part A, CHAPTER 1, § 110^[6] is the official statute on Flag Day; however, it is at the president's discretion to officially proclaim the observance. On June 14, 1937, Pennsylvania became the first U.S. state to celebrate Flag Day as a state holiday, beginning in the town of Rennerdale.^[1] New York Statutes designate the second Sunday in June as Flag Day, a state holiday.^[7]

Perhaps the oldest continuing Flag Day parade is in Fairfield, Washington.^[8] Beginning in 1909 or 1910, Fairfield has held a parade every year since, with the possible exception of 1918, and celebrated the "Centennial" parade in 2010, along with some other commemorative events. Appleton, Wisconsin, claims to be the oldest National Flag Day parade in the nation, held annually since 1950.^[9] Quincy, Massachusetts, has had an annual Flag Day parade since 1952 and claims it "is the longest-running parade of its kind" in the U.S.^[10] The largest Flag Day parade had been held annually in Troy, New York until 2017, which based its parade on the Quincy parade and typically draws 50,000 spectators.^{[11][11][12]} In addition, the Three Oaks, Michigan, Flag Day Parade is held annually on the weekend of Flag Day and is a three-day event and they claim to have the largest flag day parade in the nation as well as the oldest.^[13] In Washington, D.C., Flag Day is celebrated heavily through the 7th and 8th Wards of the city. It is said that Clyde Thompson is the "Godfather of Flag Day".
