From the Matins of the Feast: Kontakion, Tone 7: You were transfigured on the mount, O Christ our God,* and Your disciples saw Your glory as much as they could;* that when they saw You crucified* they might know that You suffered willingly,* and might proclaim to the world* that You are truly the brightness of the Father. Ikos: Awake from the lethargy that has overcome you, do not lie there on the ground; and you thoughts which weigh heavily upon my soul, arise and ascend to the summit of godliness. Let us hasten to join Peter and the sons of Zebedee, that we may behold with them the glory of God on Mount Tabor and hear the voice from heaven which they themselves heard. It impelled them to proclaim to the world that they had witnessed the glory of the Father.

PRAYER FOR OUR NATION Lord, we pray for peace and unity in our nation today. Keep us in peace, O Christ our God, under the protection of your Holy Cross; save us from our enemies, visible and invisible, that we may glorify You with thanksgiving, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. We pray that You would inspire this nation to be a nation under God. Give us your hope. Give us your peace. Amen the Light of God ~ surround us. The Love of God ~ enfold us.

The Power of God ~ protect us. The Presence of God ~ watch over us.

The Mind of God ~ Guide us. The Law of God ~ direct us.

Wherever we are God ~ be our strength.

PRAY FOR PEACE IN UKRAINE AND THE WORLD: MOST HOLY THEOTOKOS, THROUGH THE PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL, SPREAD YOUR OMOPHOR ~ WE IMPORE YOUR PROTECTION OVER UKRAINE AND BEG THAT YOU INTERCEDE WITH OUR LORD TO GRANT PEACE.

PRAYER FOR THE DELIVERANCE OF UKRAINE IN TIME OF INVASION: O Lord God of powers, and God of our salvation, O God, who alone work wonders: look down with mercy and compassion on Your humble servants, and out of love for mankind hearken and have mercy on us and on the land of Ukraine. For, behold, enemies have once more gathered together, in order to cause division and enmity. But You who know all things, understand that they have risen up righteously, and that it will be impossible to oppose their multitudes unless You show us Your help. Therefore, we who are sinful and unworthy pray unto You in repentance and with tears: Help us, O God, our Savior, and deliver the land of Ukraine for the sake of the glory of Your Name, that the enemy may not to say: "Their God has forsaken them, and there is none to deliver and save them." But let every nation understand that You are our God, and we Your people are always protected under Your dominion.

Ukraine celebrates three Savior Days (Spas) in August

2nd 6 August The Feast of the Transfiguration of our Lord. The Blessing of Apples and Honey.

3th 16 August Feast of the Icon Made without Hands. The Blessing of Nuts.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 6 - FEAST OF THE TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD

We read in the Gospel accounts of Matthew, Mark and Luke, how Jesus was Transfigured on Mount Tabor in the presence of His Disciples. Matthew 17:2 says, "His face shone like the sun and His clothes became as white as the light." Jesus was shown in the fullness of His glory as God, and standing beside Him were Moses and Elijah, the two greatest prophets of the Old Testament. This showed the Disciples that the man Jesus was indeed God as well and pre-figured His glory at the Resurrection and Ascension. The primary purpose of this event was to reveal the divine glory of God the Son to His disciples. When they saw Christ transfigured, the disciples understood His divine nature. Many churches have the tradition of having the faithful bringing in grapes and other fruits to be blessed on the Feast of the Transfiguration. The blessing of these fruits and vegetables on this day is done to remind us that one day all creation will be renewed and transfigured by the glory of Christ.

VOLUNTEER – By definition, it is a person who freely offers to do something or undertakes a task; To volunteer means to freely offer up your time and service to help, willingly and without being forced or paid to do it to serve another or the community. When was last time you Have ever asked yourselves "How do I serve a parish Community" ? As parishioners, we look to come together at a meal, at the parish festival, and other happenings.... Remember these events do not just 'happen'. These events are not the responsibility of the pastor! For these events to take place, it requires the talents of the member of the parish; it requires each of you to come forward and VOLUNTEER your time and talents. You don't need an invitation, you need to come forward and offer to help freely, inquire where you can serve. For a parish to be active, vibrant, it needs the help from those it serves! It is time to look around, to become aware of where you and your time and your talents can serve the needs of the parish. It is time to step forward and become involved in the life of the parish. Don't look for the other person to step up, this is your Church. If you want to see parish events happen, you need to be involved. Remember each of you are the CHURCH, each responsible for the full life of the parish. Let us come together to grow in hospitality, grow in community and service. Be a leader and come forward. Be that "Gift" !!

PARISH YOUTH FIELD TRIP: 8-18 Years

FEAST OF THE TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD A FEAST OF OUR LORD

EPISTLE - 2 PETER 1: 10 - 19 GOSPEL - MATTHEW 17: 1 - 9

Both Roman and Eastern Rite Catholics celebrate this church feast today, August 6th, on its traditional date for both calendars. For Eastern Christians, this feast is especially significant; it is among the “12 great feasts” of Eastern Catholicism.

The Transfiguration of Jesus happened at night!!! Now it makes perfect sense that in the fullness of the darkest of night an astounding brilliance shown forth from the Transfigured Jesus. This feast describes Jesus at the peak or pinnacle of His earthly life when He reveals Himself to three of His closest disciples, by means of a miraculous and supernatural light. The setting for the Transfiguration was like no other: the awe-inspiring mountain top was high enough for all to see. The fresh, crisp air, land rich in green trees and shrubs, along with fertile fruit bearing trees. Bishop Michael Curry says: “Hearts get changed on the mountain. Worlds get changed on the mountain. The mountain is a place of messianic metamorphoses.” It can be described as a spectacular display of Trinitarian Love as we hear the words of Matthew, Mark and Luke in the Entrance Antiphon for this liturgy: “In a resplendent cloud, the Holy Spirit appeared, and the voice of the Father was heard, This is My Beloved Son with whom I am well pleased...listen to Him”

The story of the Transfiguration of Christ has puzzled the mind of Christians for centuries. It is the clearest New Testament understanding of mystical experience, the experience of spiritual things within the ordinary and the belief that the spiritual reality is greater and more beautiful than any ordinary experience. This is the central mystery of Christ's life.

The time frame of this event is a few days short of Palm/Passion Sunday, of Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem. Jesus, along with three New Testament men, climbed to the heights of Mt. Tabor and they were met by Moses and Elijah of the Old Testament. This was an encounter with the Living God. Yet in this awesome place, Jesus shocked them with the words that He would have to suffer, be crucified, put to death – all part of the scandal of the cross.

If we were chosen to take the place of Peter, James, or John on Mt. Tabor, this would be nothing less than our first glimpse of Jesus and our Heaven. We would use the apostles' words: “Lord, it is good for us to be here: let's erect three tents...” We would be telling Jesus, we are not leaving this place...this is Heaven. Like the apostles, Hey, we got this – we are not going anywhere. We are staying here forever.

The purpose of the Transfiguration was to encourage and strengthen the apostles who were depressed by their Master's prediction of His own Passion and Death. Despite seeing Jesus standing before them in snow-white glory and the splendor of His Divinity overflowing from His body, the apostles had no thought of leaving their Transfigured Lord. YET THEY HAD TO GO BACK DOWN THE MOUNTAIN. We have to climb back down the mountain as well, each day, to take up our cross. Many of us have our “special place” in which to encounter our God and to experience our intimate time; be it water, a lake, or an ocean, or a wooded area. Yet the mountain top is the perfect place for others. Often in the Bible the mountain is God's place to reveal God's self and his plans.

Jesus is accomplishing the coming of His Kingdom, the promise of the Resurrection for us, “And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw all to Myself”. A few were chosen to witness this mystery of Transfiguration, this manifestation and unveiling of GOD in all magnificence when His appearance was changed by a brilliant white light shone from Him and His clothing, whiter than any white we know. Jesus clearly calls this mysterious occurrence “a vision”. It was not reality as we know it, but just a glimpse of what would be happening in the fullness of eternity.

We look forward with great longing to have our Christ shown to us as the “fullest manifestation of God's Light”, at the moment of our death. But until then we can know this powerful moment in amazing or unusual events in nature: a spectacular sunrise or sunset, an extraordinary rainbow. As we often say, “that was a little bit of heaven”.

In this revelation atop Mt. Tabor, God showed us the connection between the Old and New Testament. In times past, God spoke to us through the laws and the prophets, (Moses and Elijah); and now in these last days – through His Son.

Finally, the Transfiguration occurred, not so much for the sake of Jesus, but it was so much more for the apostles and us. Like the apostles, we climb down the mountain once again, awed by our own experiences of God, encouraged that we know the Glory of God once again.
