A Prayer for America: Father, we beg Your blessing for the Right to Life, the Unborn, the weak, the sick and the old; all who are finding themselves being targets of the vicious culture of death; that our Lord Jesus bless and protect all who stand up for the Christian dignity of persons. That God enlighten those who are traveling down death's highway by their involvement, in any way, with either the contemporary death culture, selfishness, relativism, or any of the new age errors of our times, that God envelop our culture with His Divine protection and help us both individually and as a nation to true enlightenment, conversion and repentance of ourselves and our culture. Help us to turn from our national sin of abortion, and return to, and once again become a Christian nation, on the narrow road, that is, the path to becoming a nation and culture, under God. Amen.

EPARCHIAL FAMILY DAY RETREAT ON SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 2019 IN ST. BASIL SEMINARY IN STAMFORD, CT. THE RETREAT IS OPEN TO ALL FAMILIES.

As we know, the family unit is the best place to provide for the proper emotional, moral and spiritual development of children, and is the building block for loving parish communities and strong societies in general. The Holy Family of Nazareth composed of Joseph, Mary and the child Jesus, united in mutual love and support, is the model of the perfect family that we should strive to emulate.

Today however, the secure and loving family unit is being threatened on all sides, perhaps as never before. Parents are often at a loss as to how to defend themselves and their families from this onslaught, and pastors are often hard pressed to offer proper aid and advice. To help you and the families of your parish in addressing this situation, the Eparchy of Stamford is pleased to be sponsoring an Eparchial Family Day Retreat on Sunday, November 17, 2019 in St. Basil Seminary in Stamford, CT. The retreat is open to all families.

I ask you to encourage the families of your parish to take part in this one day retreat. At St. Basil Seminary they will find an oasis of prayer, a place of learning and a chance to meet, share and grow' with other families of the Stamford Eparchy.

Francis, Go, Repair My House . . . . . Bishop Domenico Sorrentino, Bishop of Assisi

In his "Pastoral Letter in the Eighth Centenary of the Words of the Crucifix of San Damiano to St. Francis," Bishop Sorrentino writes: Francis, go, repair my house which, as you see, is falling into ruin.

"It seems to me...in the spiritual turmoil that the young Francis was going through, those words of calling and of mission were perceived by him first of all as an invitation to bring to fulfillment the conversion just begun, taking upon himself the anxiety and the plans of Christ for his church. The first benefit he receives from the Crucifix is, in fact, that of being 'changed.' Celano talks about an 'ineffable transformation.'

"In short, even before calling to 'repair' churches or persons, the meeting with the Crucifix of San Damiano is the special grace through which Francis himself is 'restored' in a profound intimacy with the Crucifix that will not stop growing and will find its seal in the stigmata of La Verna....But, the first issue is his own change; the first thing is penance in the biblical sense of metanoia: the full conversion to Christ and to His Gospel."

A letter from St Francis of Assisi to all the faithful

We must be simple, humble and pure

It was through his archangel, Saint Gabriel, that the Father above made known to the holy and glorious Virgin Mary that the worthy, holy and glorious Word of the Father would come from heaven and take from her womb the real flesh of our human frailty. Though he was wealthy beyond reckoning, he still willingly chose to be poor with his blessed mother. And shortly before his passion he celebrated the Passover with his disciples. Then he prayed to his Father saying: Father, if it be possible, let this cup be taken from me.

Nevertheless, he reposed his will in the will of his Father. The Father willed that his blessed and glorious Son, whom he gave to us and who was born for us, should through his own blood offer himself as a sacrificial victim on the altar of the cross. This was to be done not for himself through whom all things were made, but for our sins. It was intended to leave us an example of how to follow in his footsteps. And he desires all of us to be saved through him, and to receive him with pure heart and chaste body.

O how happy and blessed are those who love the Lord and do as the Lord himself said in the gospel: You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart and your whole soul; and your neighbor as yourself. Therefore, let us love God and adore him with pure heart and mind. This is his particular desire when he says: True worshippers adore the Father in spirit and truth. For all who adore him must do so in the spirit of truth. Let us also direct to him our praises and prayers saying: Our Father, who art in heaven, since we must always pray and never grow slack.

Furthermore, let us produce worthy fruits of penance. Let us also love our neighbors as ourselves. Let us have charity and humility. Let us give alms because these cleanse our souls from the stains of sin. Men lose all the material things they leave behind them in this world, but they carry with them the reward of their charity and the alms they give. For these they will receive from the Lord the reward and recompense they deserve. We must not be wise and prudent according to the flesh. Rather we must be simple, humble and pure. We should never desire to be over others. Instead, we ought to be servants who are submissive to every human being for God's sake. The Spirit of the Lord will rest on all who live in this way and persevere in it to the end. He will permanently dwell in them. They will be the Father's children who do his work. They are the spouses, brothers and mothers of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayer of Saint Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,

Grant that I may not so much seek

To be consoled as to console;

To be understood as to understand;

To be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;

It is in pardoning

that we are pardoned;

And it is in dying

that we are born to eternal life.
